

CUT IN THE GOVT SPENDING "KEY TO STABLE ECONOMY"

Two Major Business Executives So Inform Congress Today

REDUCE TAXES, DEBT

Both Can Be Lowered If Fed'l Budget is Brought "Under Control"

By William Theis

(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 17—(INS)—Two major business executives told Congress today that the key to a stable postwar economy is to cut government spending.

Both the public debt and taxes can be reduced, they assured the Joint Economic Committee, if the federal budget is brought "under control."

W. Randolph Burgess, vice-chairman of the National City Bank, of New York, gave the committee headed by Sen. Taft (R) Ohio these recommendations:

1. Control the budget—slash government spending.
2. Begin "at once" to reduce the 257 billion dollar public debt.
3. Distribute the debt into the hands of investors other than banks.
4. Reduce wartime tax rates "promptly." He called high taxes probably the "greatest handicap to productivity."
5. Unfreeze interest rates to provide a "fair price for money."

Marion B. Folsom, treasurer of the Eastman Kodak Company, of Rochester, N. Y., testified that "the greatest contribution the government can make at this time toward the maintenance of the present high level of employment is the reduction of government expenditures."

Folsom said this will permit reduction of both debt and taxes.

The witness laid before the committee recommendations made by the special House Committee on Post-war Economic Policy and Planning, for which he served as director from March 1944 through December 1946.

Burgess pointed out that there is "little or no danger" that the government will default on its huge debt because "the government prints the money with which all debts are paid."

But he warned that "dollar devaluation" through increased living costs and the threat of regulation resulting from debt management are two "dangers" to be faced.

Burgess said that one reason for prompt debt reduction is that "we can never tell when another national emergency may arise—and we don't want to be caught then with so large a debt." He added:

Inside Your Congress

War?

—BY—
SAMUEL B. FETTERGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

"While the War Department's estimate of the fiscal year of 1948 does not include the probability of war, it does not exclude such a possibility."—General Eisenhower, before a Senate Committee.

The chief danger of war within a year, or two, if it exists, does not come from Washington or Moscow direct. The danger lies rather in a civil war in some European country which may drag in either Russia or the United States in defense of some faction or politician to whose survival Stalin or Truman has committed himself.

If war comes, the decision sending our youth to die will likely be made by someone whose name is as utterly unknown to us now as that of the young student Princep who killed the Archduke Ferdinand at Sarajevo, Bosnia, on June 28, 1914. From that spark, the war spread as the great powers took the side of one faction or the other.

In our own Civil War, both France and England permitted the South to build cruisers in their shipyards which sank over 60 merchant ships of the North. England sent troops to Canada, and Napoleon III, of France sent an army of 35,000 men to Mexico. Russia, on the other hand, was friendly to the North and

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Greek Government troops, supported by strafing planes, were reported to have attacked guerrillas in the hills north of Yanina near the Albanian border yesterday. Some rebel groups were said to be trying to join other elements in the Grammos Mountains. The United Nations Security Council will consider today a United States resolution to create a semi-permanent border commission in the Balkans.

The United States military mission to Greece has the right to advise Athens on ways to counter guerrilla warfare, Secretary Marshall said. He announced that ten merchant ships were going to Turkey as a first step in economic aid.

Turning to Europe, General Marshall called coal the fundamental raw material essential to the Continent's rehabilitation and said production in Germany's Ruhr must be increased. This aroused much interest at the 16-nation Paris conference, where questionnaires on each country's resources and needs were distributed.

The Conference of Governors in Salt Lake City expressed its "faith and confidence" in Secretary Marshall and unanimously went on record in favor of a non-partisan foreign policy reflecting this country's devotion to peace.

AVERAGES ARE HIGH

Two registered Holstein-Friesian herds owned by Bucks county dairymen have completed a year of production testing in the official herd improvement registry program of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

One of these was the 11-cow herd belonging to William D. Tyson, Perkaskie, R. D. and the other was the 17-cow herd of Mrs. Margery Jones, Washington Crossing.

An average of 376 pounds of butterfat and 10,979 pounds of milk was established by the herd on the Tyson farm. Milking was done twice daily.

The highest producer in the Tyson herd was a six-year-old cow, which was credited with 459 pounds of butterfat and 10,617 pounds of milk.

The herd belonging to Mrs. Jones recorded an average of 405 pounds of butterfat and 11,537 pounds of milk. Thirteen cows were milked twice daily and the other four were milked three times daily.

A six-year-old cow, the animal making the best record in the Jones herd, was credited with 629 pounds of butterfat and 20,328 pounds of milk.

A registered Holstein-Friesian cow belonging to Harry L. Cooper, Jamison, according to the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, has completed a 365-day production record. She is credited with 503 pounds of butterfat and 13,145 pounds of milk.

Installation of officers of Shepherds Delight Lodge, No. 1, scheduled for this evening, has been indefinitely postponed. There will be no meetings until September 4th.

THREE ROADS AHEAD

One of the great changes in the world in the last century and a half has been the breakdown of the idea of "the divine right of kings."

It's been a tough season on royalty. Since the French Revolution, kings have been deposed, imprisoned, executed, driven out. Many have abdicated—in one illustrious case, for no other reason than a love affair! Those who remain are very tame house-pets, with much more social importance than political weight.

What this means is that mankind got tired of being ruled by kings and emperors. They wanted a change. They wanted, or thought they wanted, to run their own affairs. They wanted "democracy."

Unfortunately, it has turned out in recent years that not everything called "democracy" deserves the name. The word comes from the Greeks, and means "people rule." By modern usage, it covers all forms in which the people run their governments, and not the other way around.

At present, there isn't any government in the world, of any size, which really earns the name of "democracy"—though most of them are fond of using the word. Our own government is far along towards State Socialism; virtually all of the Constitutional safeguards and machineries of democratic rule by "popular sovereignty" have been discarded or bypassed.

Russia is a tight Socialistic dictatorship; England is a loose and very weak one. Frower Germany was a Socialistic dictatorship. Italy a Fascist dictatorship. Spain, by the route of a savage civil war, also became a Fascist dictatorship. France was Socialist before the war, hasn't made up its mind what it is since.

As for Democracy, everyone talks about it—but hardly anyone anywhere is willing to go to bat for it, really wants it, or even is able to recognize it when they see it.

Hitler preached that "democracies are decadent," and a good many New Dealers in this country took his word for it. They decided that the Constitution belonged to "the horse and buggy days," and they wrecked most of the democratic safeguards in it.

If monarchies are out of fashion and democracy "decadent," what choice have the people now alive as to the form of government under which they shall live in the future?

It has been habitual to say that hereafter mankind must choose between Communism and Fascism.

As applies to those demoralized areas where there is not a sturdy, self-reliant population willing to work and cooperate, this may be true. As for the American people, there are three choices: to drift on into Communism or Fascism—or to return to democracy.

Communism means "dictatorship of the proletariat," and proletariat means working people who own no property except their personal effects. Communism and Socialism are twins; they have different names, and a few minor distinctions—but they are twins, just the same. The Russians know this perfectly well—they know that one of the "S's" in USSR stands for "Socialist."

Communism is, then, a dictatorship, run in the name of working people. As it is being urged on the United States, it takes the form of a powerful Federal government subservient to the labor unions—a central government in which the executive branch has broken free from the Constitutional restraints placed upon it by Congress and the courts.

GEORGE KOSKY FOUND DEAD IN SHACK HERE

Aged Man Made Home At Borough Dump; Believed Dead About 2 Days

HAD NO RELATIVES

An aged man known as George Kosky was found dead in a shack on the borough dump yesterday afternoon. The only identity police have is the name of Kosky, under which the man had registered upon a number of occasions when seeking a night's lodging at police headquarters here. He gave his age as 76, and told police upon a number of occasions that he had no relatives or close friends.

Death is attributed to natural causes.

Yesterday afternoon a truck driver for Hunter-Wilson Distilling Company went to the dump with a load of paper and boxes. He had become familiar with Kosky as Kosky's shack was in that section of the dump, southeast of the sewage pumping station. Not seeing the "old man" around, the truck driver sought Fred Wallace, who is in charge of the dump. Wallace went to the shack and found Kosky dead upon a mattress. Bristol police were called, and Officer Nicol went to the scene. Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby was also summoned.

Troop No. 48, of Bristol, with Jerome Soloway, scoutmaster, was awarded the honor troop for general excellence of the work of the troop at Camp Ockanickon the Bucks County Council, Boy Scout Camp, at Point Pleasant, at the ceremonial campfire last Saturday.

The Honor Troop is awarded each week to the troop that meets the requirements and in the opinion of the camp staff has lived up to the Scout oath and law during their stay at camp. The board of review at camp advanced 11 scouts to second class, four scouts to first class and 46 merit badges were awarded to the campers by the Lenape District board of review. Dr. M. M. Hostetter, chairman of the Lenape Advancement Committee presented the awards and was assisted by Frank Shutt, Charles Hargens, J. Walter Livezey, George R. Barber, Wm. C. Christ, Wm. P. Potter, Paul W. Kutz, Walt Frantz and V. M. Lewis.

The Honor Patrol work was highly praised by the Scout Executive, Raymond W. Hoxworth, Camporee streamers were awarded to Troop 1, Sellersville, and Troop 48, of Bristol.

The chapel rostrum which is being built as a memorial, is being completed and plans are under way for a dedication of the new chapel some time during the summer. A pet fox, which has been loaned to the camp through the courtesy of the Philadelphia Zoo along with other exhibits, is a new addition to the nature department of which Rex Thomas, of Churchville, is the director. The fox caused a great deal of commotion at camp during the past week when it took upon itself the opportunity to roam the camp area, but was soon back in its cage.

Hon. Thomas B. Stockham, Regional Commodore was the speaker at the morning chapel service after which he made an official inspection of the camp. The speaker at the afternoon vesper service was Rev. Wm. B. Stinson, of the Episcopal Church of Yardley. A large number of parents and friends take advantage of the opportunity to visit camp and attend the camp fire ceremonial on Saturday evening and the vesper service on Sunday afternoon.

In an effort to locate, if possible, any relatives of the dead man who may be in this area, Coroner Rigby today gave out the following description: 5'-8" tall, with gray hair and bald on the top of his head, sandy moustache, one front tooth missing. It is believed Kosky had been dead about two days. The body was moved to the Morden morgue.

Kosky had made his home on the borough dump for the past two summers. He salvaged rags, and through money received from the sale of these, and through the kindnesses of those with whom he came in contact, he was able to eke out a living. Last winter he left his crude abode, and before departing, told Chief of Police Linford J. Jones that he had saved $180 and that he was going to Philadelphia for the winter. He secured employment there washing dishes, but in the early spring returned to Bristol. His living quarters were large packing cases standing close together, with an improvised roof.

Changes Shown In The Salaries In 50 Years

A survey made by a Doylestown newspaper reveals that salaries paid to teachers in Bucks County 50 years ago were "far different from those of today."

However, the purchasing power of a dollar in those days was much greater than now. This is shown by the wholesale market quotations, which also appeared 50 years ago.

As an illustration, butter could be bought on the wholesale market from 19 to 24 cents a pound. Wholesale quotations on eggs were 18 and 19 cents a dozen and live poultry could be bought on the wholesale markets from six to nine cents a pound.

Prices for other commodities were correspondingly low, and it was for this reason that the dollar a half century ago went much further than it does today.

An interesting item found in the survey was that 11 of the school districts throughout the county had terms of only seven months. Five had nine months and the remainder had either 9, 9 1/2 or ten months.

With the exception of Bristol borough, salary schedules of most of the districts in the county were published in the Doylestown paper and this showed that Doylestown borough paid the highest salary for the head of the schools. He was paid $100 per month. The lowest town, $40 to $65; Milford, $30 to $50; Morrisville, $42 to $60; New Britain, $35 to $50; Newtown borough, $50 to $85; Newtown township, $40; Nockamixon, $32; Northampton, $40 to $50; Perkasie, $35 to $75; Plumstead, $37 to $53; Quakertown, $40 to $75.

Richland township, $36 to $37; Richlandtown, $35 to $45; East Rockhill, $34 to $37; West Rockhill $35 to $40; Sellersville, $35 to $39; Silverdale, $42; Solebury, $40 to $45; Southampton, $40 to $47.50; Springfield, $32 to $38; Telford, $45; Tinticum, $30 to $38; Tinticum Independent, $32; Tullytown, $40; Warminster, $40; Wrightstown, $45; Warwick, $35; Warrington, $45 and Yardley, $40 to $75.

Defeat of Fourth Ward Boys

ST. ANN'S DEFEATED

Single by Barbetta Was The Only Safe Blow For The "Saints"

The Junior Hibernians clinched second place in the Bristol Youth League, last evening, by whipping the Fourth Ward Boys Club, 10-3, on the Memorial Park field. In the other Youth League games, the Terrace team won over the St. Ann's Juniors, 10-1, and the Third Ward Eagles forfeited to Bristol Township.

"Pete" Rubino hurled a fine tilt for the Hibs as he set down the Boys Club with four hits. He had nine strikeouts and proved invincible in the pinches. His wildness kept him in hot water most of the time.

A single by Gene Barbetta in the third inning was the only safe blow St. Ann's made off the pitching of Dick Math, of the Terrace boys.

The winners had 10 hits with seven coming in the first inning and two others in the fifth. In these two frames, the Terrace team scored nine of their runs.	Score by innings: Terrace 5 0 1 0 0 0—1 St. Ann's 0 0 1 0 0 0—1

Faith Clarke's SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

SWANKY RAIN-COATS are now a definite fashion interest. I saw a honey in the Snellenburg Raincoat Circle—at $16.50. It has all the extra touches that make for smartness, including a glamorous but practical hood for protecting hair or hat. It is a "Duratwill" cravenette rayon satin tailored by Sherbrooke. There is a choice of black, Kelly, natural and gray. Or, you may like to see other famous make raincoats at $12.95 to $49.50. (2nd fl.)

ANTIQUE BAZAAR. If you're fascinated by authentic antiques in fine condition, just hie yourself to the exhibit and sale of beautiful pieces in the "Antique Bazaar" of the Snellenburg Antique Furniture Department. You'll find old Staffordshire and other china, stunning student lamps, mellow old tables, etc. Each piece is hand-picked, so that you can't go wrong in making a purchase. To give you a hint of the wide price range, these cups and saucers at a mere $2, up to a whole lustrous teaset at $200. Beautiful old tables can be had from $30 to $300. But you'll want to see and price, for yourselves, all the lovely things. (5th fl.)

PLASTIC BEAUTIES. Plastic is a magic substance. So many stunning things are evolving from it. Take California plastic luggage tags, for example. I never saw handsomer ones than the Snellenburg Stationery Dept. is lettering, deeply, with gold or silver names and addresses! The tags sell at $2 each or $3.50 a pair, and add a swanky touch to any luggage. Your choice of crystal with white leather straps, onyx black with black straps, or crystal with light or dark brown straps. These or the new plastic coasters make fine hostess or birthday gifts, too. The jewel-like amber, crystal, emerald, or sapphire coasters will be lettered with any one-line name or initials at 4 for $1.25, 8 for $2.25, 12 for $3. Allow three weeks for letterings. (1st fl.)

AN IMPROVEMENT on the popular solid color pottery table ware is the new, graceful "Hacienda" ware from California. Gone are the unwieldy weight and too raw colors. "Hacienda" comes in subtle coral, palest gray, lemon yellow. Services for four which cost but $6.95 each. Soon, too, you will be able to add additional pieces from "open stock." The dishes are dainty, yet sufficiently generous in size to please men; especially in this so of the large-loop cup handles. Snellenburgs, China Dept. (3rd fl.)

CERVELLERO WINS HIS FIFTH GAME; DEFEATS 5TH WARD

Rohm & Haas Pitcher Holds Opponents To Four Scattered Hits

FINAL SCORE IS 12 TO 1

Cordisco Started But Was Relieved by Joe Sagolla

Paul Cervellero won his fifth mound win of the season, last evening, as the Rohm & Haas team trounced the Fifth Ward Sporting Club, 12-1, on the Third Ward field. Cervellero held the Warders to four scattered hits. It scored its lone run on an error, a hit batsman, and a single by "Sal" Pappaterra. The chemical mixers had 13 hits and were led at the plate by "Joe" Neffman, who had three out of four. "Wally" DeWitt had a triple in his only official trip to the plate. "Smithers" Cordisco started on the hill for Fifth Ward and only lasted one and a third innings. He was relieved by Joe Sagolla, who finished. Pappaterra had two of the Warders' hits.

The fielding gem of the game was a back-handed catch by "Easy" Mama of Cervellero's drive in the fifth inning. He doubled Vanant off first base.

LANGHORNE LEGION DEFEATS DEMOCRATS

With "Wally" Carter having 13 strikeouts, the Langhorne Legion team increased its lead on third position in the second division of the Bristol Suburban League, defeating the Democrat Club, 11-3, last evening, on Leedom's field.

Carter pitched a fine brand of ball as he kept breezing the third strike past the Democrat batters. The losers had five hits.

The winners had 10 hits off Bob Norris and two other hurlers, Capello and Centonze. But in fairness to Norris it must be stated that several of the hits made off his delivery should have been caught or topped in the infield.

Ferrell had three singles in four trips to the plate for the winners, while "Lou" Tomlinson had a pair of doubles.

BRISTOL JUNIOR LEGION LOSES TO DOYLESTOWN

DOYLESTOWN, July 17 — Although held to two hits by "Linny" Jones, the Doylestown Junior Legion scored a run in the fourth inning which was enough to beat the Bristol Junior Legion, 1-0, in a Bucks County League match. The county seaters' run came without the benefit of hits and was scored on a walk and two errors. The hits, both singles, were made by Rufe in the third and Knele in the fifth.

Bristol had six hits but Redding Rufe was tight in the pinches and scored his second mound win over Bristol. In the final inning, Young walked, and Strong and Neill hit singles, but Bristol failed to push over a run.
